PREFACE

May this prayer book, small enough in size to be carried in a pocket over the heart, bear the spiritual message of Israel's ancient prayers to the heart of the American Jewish soldiers and sailors serving their country. The prayers here gathered together speak of the eternal aspirations of the Jewish people, and, indeed, of all mankind. They lift the soul above the immediate cares and interests of the daily round to the sphere of tenderness, purity and faith that is divine. They link those far from home with some of the most beautiful and uplifting associations of family life. They quicken loyalty to loved ones and to all one's fellow men. They strengthen against temptation and give courage to spurn evil and hold fast to faith in the ultimate triumph of the good. In furthering this high purpose, this little volume of devotion serves not only the men who use it, but also the highest ideal of America.

This abridged prayer book is necessarily incomplete, especially in the services for the festivals, and for the New Year and the Day of Atonement. Including only the essence of the principal Jewish services of prayer, it is designed to be used where the exigencies of life in the army or the navy do not permit attendance at regular synagogue services with their incomparable richness of spiritual inspiration.

May this manual of prayer, which from the hallowed ideals of the past draws religious inspiration for the present, help towards achieving a future of peace and human brotherhood under the Father of all mankind.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Iewish Welfare Board makes grateful acknowledgment to the Jewish Publication Society for permission to use its text of most of the Biblical passages, and to the Central Conference of American Rabbis for the Friday evening service from the Union Prayer Book, as well as for the hymns and prayers taken, as indicated in the text, from the Union Hymnal and from "Blessing and Praise". It has also drawn on prayer books edited by Simeon Singer, Hermann Adler, David de Sola Pool and others, and the Prayer Book for Jewish Soldiers and Sailors compiled for men in the British Army and Navy. Finally it records its debt to the original editors, Dr. Cyrus Adler, Dr. Bernard Drachman and Dr. William Rosenau, representing respectively conservative, orthodox, and reform Judaism, who in 1917 prepared the Abridged Prayer Book for Jewish men in the American forces serving in the World War, and to Dr. Solomon B. Freehof, Rabbi Eugene Kohn and Dr. David de Sola Pool, who have prepared this revised edition

Psalm 92

A Psalm, a Song. For the Sabbath Day

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High; to declare Thy lovingkindness in the morning, and Thy faithfulness in the night seasons, with an instrument of ten strings and with the psaltery, with a solemn sound upon the harp. For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy work; I will exult in the works of Thy hands. How great are Thy works, O Lord! Thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knows not, neither does a fool understand this. When the wicked spring up as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they may be destroyed forever. But Thou, O Lord, art on high for evermore. For, lo, Thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, Thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my strength hast Thou exalted like the horn of the wild-ox; I am anointed with rich oil. Mine eye also has gazed on them that lie in wait for me, mine ears have heard the desire of evil-doers that rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; they shall grow like cedars in Lebanon. SHEMA YISRAEL

Deuteronomy 6.4-9

HEAR, O ISRAEL: THE LORD OUR GOD,

Blessed be His name, whose glorious kingdom is forever and ever.

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be upon thy heart. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thy house, and upon thy gates.

Cause us, O Lord our God, to lie down in peace, and raise us up, O our King, unto life-Spread over us the tabernacle of Thy peace;

Exodus 31. 16, 17

Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He ceased from work and rested.

ALEINU

It is for us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to Him who formed the world in the beginning. He has not made us like the nations, nor like the pagan peoples of the earth; He has not assigned us a portion like theirs, nor a destiny like that of their multitude. For we bend the knee and offer worship and thanks before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be He. He stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. The dwelling place of His glory is in the heavens above, and the abode of His might is in the loftiest heights. He is our God; there is none else: in truth He is our King: there is none besides Him; as it is written in His Law: 'And thou shalt know this day, and lay it to thy heart, that the Lord He is God in heaven בַשָּׁמֵיִם מִמַּעַל וְעַל־הָאָרֶץ מִתְּחַת אֵין צוד:

We therefore hope in Thee, O Lord our God, that we may soon behold the glory of Thy might, when Thou wilt remove the idols from the earth, and the false gods will be utterly destroyed, when the world will be perfected under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh will call upon Thy name, when Thou wilt turn unto Thyself all the wicked of the earth. Let all the inhabitants of the world perceive and know that unto Thee every knee must bend, every tongue give homage. Before Thee, O Lord our God, let them bow and fall; and unto Thy glorious name let them give honor; let them all accept the yoke of Thy kingdom, and do Thou reign over them speedily, and forever and ever. For the kingdom is Thine, and to all eternity Thou wilt reign in glory; as it is written in Thy Law: 'The Lord shall reign forever and ever.' - 1. The living God, O magnify and bless, Transcending Time and here eternally.
- One Being, yet unique in unity;A mystery of Oneness measureless.
- 3. Lo! Form or body He has none, and man No semblance of His holiness can frame.
- 4. Before Creation's dawn He was the same; The first to be, though never He began.
- 5. He is the world's and every creature's Lord; His rule and majesty are manifest,

KIDDUSH FOR SABBATH EVENING

And it was evening and it was morning,—the sixth day.

And the heaven and the earth were finished and all their host. And on the seventh day God had finished His work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and He hallowed it, because He rested thereon from all His work which God in creating had made.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who createst the fruit of the vine.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who hast sanctified us by Thy commandments and hast taken pleasure in us, and in love and favor hast given us the holy Sabbath as an inheritance, a memorial of the creation — that day being also the first of the holy convocations, in remembrance of the departure from Egypt. For Thou hast chosen us and sanctified us above all nations, and in love and favor hast given us Thy holy Sabbath as an inheritance. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, who hallowest the Sabbath.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who bringest forth bread from the earth.

GRACE AFTER MEAL

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who feedest the whole world with Thy goodness, with grace, with lovingkindness, and tender mercy; Thou givest food to all flesh, for Thy lovingkindness endures forever. Through Thy great goodness food has never failed us; O may it not fail us for ever and ever for Thy great name's sake, since Thou nourishest and sustainest all beings, and doest good unto all, and providest food for all Thy creatures whom Thou hast created. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, who givest food unto all.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God. O God, our Father, our King, good and beneficent to all. Even as day by day Thou hast done good to us and art good to us, so mayest Thou continue to do good to us forever. Even as Thou hast dealt and dost deal bountifully with us, so mayest Thou continue to bestow upon us grace, lovingkindness, and mercy. O make us worthy of the days of the Messiah and of the life of the world to come. The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

MORNING SERVICE FOR SABBATHS AND FESTIVALS

The breath of every living being shall bless Thy name, O Lord our God, and the spirit of all flesh shall continually glorify and exalt Thee, O our King. From everlasting to everlasting Thou art God. Beside Thee we have no King who redeems and saves, sets free and delivers, who supports and has mercy in all times of trouble and distress; yea, we have no King but Thee.

He is God of the first and of the last, the God of all creatures, the Lord of all generations, who is extolled with many praises, and guides His world with lovingkindness and His creatures with tender mercies. The Lord slumbers not, nor sleeps; He arouses the sleepers and awakens the slumberers; He makes the dumb to speak, releases the fettered, supports the falling, and raises up the bowed. To Thee alone we give thanks.

Though our mouths were full of song as the sea, our tongues full of exultation as the multitude of its waves, and our lips of praise as the spacious firmament; though our eyes shone with light like the sun and the moon, and our hands were spread forth like the eagles of

From the sword Thou hast rescued us, from pestilence Thou hast saved us, and from sore and lasting diseases Thou hast delivered us. Thou deliverest the poor from him that is stronger than he, the poor and the needy from him that robs him.' Who is like unto Thee, who is equal to Thee, who can be compared unto Thee, O God, great, mighty and revered, most high God, possessor of heaven and earth? We will praise, laud, and glorify Thee, and we will bless Thy holy name, as it is said: '[A Psalm] of David. Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name.' Thou art God in Thy power and might, great in Thy glorious name, mighty forever, and revered for Thine aweinspiring deeds, the King enthroned sublime on high.

He who inhabits eternity, exalted and holy is His name; and it is written: 'Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous; praise is comely for the upright.'

By the mouth of the upright Thou shalt be praised, by the words of the righteous Thou shalt be blessed, by the tongue of the loving ones Thou shalt be extolled, and in the midst of the holy Thou shalt be hallowed.

Reader and Congregation.—Blessed is the Lord who is to be blessed forever and ever.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who makest light and createst darkness, who makest peace and createst all things. O cause a new light to shine upon Zion, and may we all be worthy soon to enjoy its brightness. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, Creator of the heavenly lights.

With abounding love hast Thou loved us, O Lord our God, with surpassing tenderness hast Thou pitied us, O our Father, our King. For our fathers' sake, who trusted in Thee, and whom Thou didst teach the statutes of life, be also gracious unto us and teach us. O our Father, merciful Father, ever compassionate, have mercy upon us. Put it into our hearts to understand and to discern, to mark, to learn and teach all the words of instruction in Thy Law, to heed and to do them and to fulfil them in love. Enlighten our eyes in Thy Law, and let our

And it shall come to pass, if ve shall hearken diligently unto My commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. And I will give grass in thy fields for thy cattle, and thou shalt eat and be satisfied. Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; and the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and He shut up the heaven, so that there shall be no rain, and the ground shall not yield her fruit; and ve perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord gives you. Numbers 15. 37-41

And the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying: 'Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them throughout their generations fringes in the corners of their garments, and that they put with the fringe of each corner a thread of blue. And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye go not about after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye are wont to go astray; that ye may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy unto your God. True, firmly established and founded, right and constant, lovely and precious, pleasant and sweet, solemn and revered is this deeply cherished, good and beautiful teaching that has been revealed to us and received by us in love for all time. It is true, the God of the universe is our King, the Rock of Jacob, the Shield of our salvation. Throughout all generations He endures and His name endures; His throne is established, and His kingdom and His faithfulness endure forever. His words also live and endure; they are faithful and desirable forever and to all eternity, as for our fathers so also for us, our children, our generations, and for all the generations of the seed of Israel His servants.

For the first and for the last ages Thy word is good and endures forever and ever; it is true and trustworthy, a statute which shall not pass away. True it is that Thou art indeed the Lord our God and the God of our fathers, our King, our fathers' King, our Redeemer, the Redeemer of our fathers, our Maker, the Rock of our salvation; our Deliverer and Rescuer from everlasting, such is Thy name; there is no God beside Thee.

Thou hast been the help of our fathers from of old, a Shield and Savior to their children after them in every generation. In the heights of the universe is Thy habitation, and Thy judgments and Thy righteousness reach to the ends of the earth. Happy is the man who hearkens unto Thy commandments, and lays up Thy Law and Thy word in his heart. True it is that Thou art indeed the Lord of Thy people, and a mighty King to plead their cause. True it is that Thou art indeed the first and Thou art the last, and beside Thee we have no King, Redeemer, and Savior. From Egypt Thou hast redeemed us, O Lord our God, and from the house of bondage Thou hast delivered us; all their first-born Thou hast slain, but Thy firstborn Thou hast redeemed; Thou hast divided the Red Sea, and drowned the proud; but Thou hast made the beloved to pass through, while the waters covered their adversaries, not one of whom was left. Wherefore the beloved praised and extolled God, and offered hymns, songs,

Moses and the children of Israel sang a song unto Thee with great joy, saying, all of them:

'Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the mighty? Who is like unto Thee, glorious in holiness, awesome in praises, doing wonders?'

With a new song the redeemed people offered praise unto Thy name at the sea-shore; they all gave thanks in unison, and proclaimed Thy sovereignty, and said:

'The Lord shall reign forever and ever.'

O Rock of Israel, arise to the help of Israel, and deliver, as Thou hast promised, Judah and Israel. Our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, who hast redeemed Israel.

Exodus 31. 16, 17

Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He ceased from work and rested.

Thou didst not give it, O Lord our God, unto the heathen nations, nor didst Thou make it, O our King, the heritage of worshipers of idols. Nor do those who are not of Thy covenant abide in its rest; but unto Thy people Israel Thou didst give it in love, unto the seed of Jacob whom Thou didst choose. The people that hallow the seventh day, even all of them shall be satisfied and find delight in Thy goodness. Thou hast found pleasure in the seventh day, and hast hallowed it; Thou hast called it the desirable of days, in remembrance of the creation.

While yet the universe was naught.
When by His will all things were wrought,
Then first His sovran name was known.

And when the All shall cease to be,
In dread lone splendour He shall reign.
He was, He is, He shall remain
In glorious eternity.

And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. And I will give grass in thy fields for thy cattle, and thou shalt eat and be satisfied. Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; and the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and He shut up the heaven, so that there shall be no rain, and the ground shall not yield her fruit; and ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord gives you. ALEINU

It is for us to praise the Lord of all, to ascribe greatness to Him who formed the world in the beginning. He has not made us like the nations, nor like the pagan peoples of the earth; He has not assigned us a portion like theirs, nor a destiny like that of their multitude. For we bend the knee and offer worship and thanks before the supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be He. He stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. The dwelling place of His glory is in the heavens above, and the abode of His might is in the loftiest heights. He is our God; there is none else: in truth He is our King; there is none besides Him; as it is written in His Law: 'And thou shalt know this day, and lay it to thy heart, that the Lord He is God in heaven above and upon the earth beneath; there is none else.'

We therefore hope in Thee, O Lord our God, that we may soon behold the glory of Thy might, when Thou wilt remove the idols from the earth, and the false gods will be utterly destroyed, when the world will be perfected under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh will call upon Thy name, when Thou wilt turn unto Thyself all the wicked

[A Psalm of] praise; of David.

I will extol Thee, my God, O King; and I will bless Thy name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless Thee; and I will praise Thy name forever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall laud Thy works to another, and shall declare Thy mighty acts.

The glorious splendor of Thy majesty, and Thy wondrous works, will I rehearse.

And men shall speak of the might of Thy tremendous acts; and I will tell of Thy greatness.

They shall utter the fame of Thy great goodness, and shall sing of Thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy.

The Lord is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all His works.

AFTERNOON SERVICE

Happy are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be ever praising Thee. (Selah). Happy is the people whose lot is thus, yea, happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

PSALM 145

[A Psalm of] praise; of David.

I will extol Thee, my God, O King; and I will bless Thy name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless Thee; and I will praise Thy name forever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised;

and His greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall laud Thy works to another, and shall declare Thy mighty acts.

The glorious splendor of Thy majesty, and Thy wondrous works, will I rehearse.

And men shall speak of the might of Thy tremendous acts; and I will tell of Thy greatness.

They shall utter the fame of Thy great goodness, and shall sing of Thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy.

The Lord is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all His works.

PRAYERS BEFORE RETIRING TO REST AT NIGHT

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who makest the bands of sleep to fall upon mine eyes, and slumber upon mine eyelids. May it be Thy will, O Lord my God and God of my fathers, to let me lie down in peace and rise up again in peace. Let not my thoughts trouble me, nor evil dreams, nor evil fancies, but let my rest be perfect before Thee. O lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death, for it is Thou who givest light to the apple of the eye. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, who givest light to the whole world in Thy glory.

SHEMA YISRAEL

Deuteronomy 6.4-9

Hear, o Israel: The Lord our God, THE LORD IS ONE.

Blessed be His name, whose glorious kingdom is forever and ever.

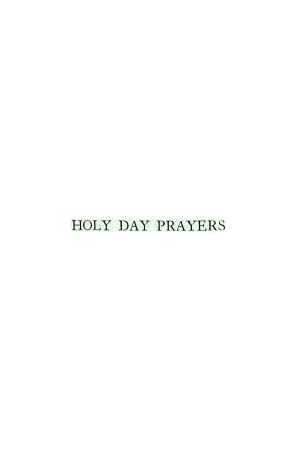

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be upon thy heart; and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thy house, and upon thy gates.

וִשְׁנַּוָתָם לִבָנֶיךְ וַדְבַּרְתָּ בָּם בְּשִׁבְתִּךְ בִּבֵיתֶךְ וּבָלֵכִתִּךְ בַדֻּרֵךְ וּבְשָׁכִבִּךְ וּבִקוּמֵךְ: וּקשַׁרְתָּם לָאוֹת עַל־יָדֶךְ וָהָיוּ לִטֹטָפֿת בין עיניף: וכתבתם על מוזות ביתף וּבִשְׁעֲרֵיך: בְּרוּךְ יָיָ בַּיּוֹם. בְּרוּךְ יִיָ בַּלָיִלָה. בָּרוּךְ יָרָ בְּשֶׁכְבֵנוּ. בָּרוּך יִי בִּקוֹמֵנוּ: כִּי בִיָּדְךְּ

Blessed be the Lord by day; blessed be the Lord by night; blessed be the Lord when we lie down; blessed be the Lord when we rise up. For in Thy hand are the souls of the living and the dead, as it is said: 'In His hand is the soul of every living thing, and the spirit of all human flesh.' Into Thy hand I commend my spirit; Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, God of truth.

EVENING SERVICE FOR NEW YEAR

Read Shema and "Cause us", p. 2, and the Amidah, pp. 23 and 24. Then continue:—

Now, therefore, Lord our God, inspire awe of Thee in all Thy works, veneration for Thee in all Thou hast created, so that all Thy works may revere Thee and all created bow down before Thee. May they all become one fellowship to do Thy will with perfect heart. For, Lord our God, we know that dominion is Thine, might is in Thy hand, power in Thy right hand, and that Thy name shall be revered by all Thou hast created.

Grant then honor to Thy people, praise to those who revere Thee, a bright hope to those who seek Thee, confidence to those who yearn for Thee, joy to Thy land, rejoicing to Thy city, flowering of strength to Thy servant David, and rekindling of the lamp of Thy Messiah, son of Jesse. O may this all come speedily in our days.

וּבְכֵן צַדִּיאִים יִרְאוּ וְיִשְּׂמְחוּ וִישְׁרִים יַצְלְּוֹזוּ וַחֲסִידִים בְּרְנָּה יָגִילוּ. וְעוֹלְתְּה תִּקְפָּץ־פִּיהָ וְכָל־הָרִשְׁעָה כֻּלָּהּ כְּעָשָׁן תִּכְלֶה. כִּי תַעֲבִיר מֶמְשֶׁלֶת זְדוֹן מִן־ הארץ:

Then shall the just see and exult, the righteous be glad and the pious sing for joy. Then shall iniquity be silenced and all wickedness shall vanish like smoke, when Thou wilt remove the domination of arrogance from the world.

Then Thou, O Lord, shalt reign, Thou alone over all Thy works on Mount Zion, the dwelling place of Thy glory, and in Jerusalem, Thy holy city, as it is written in Thy Holy Words: 'The Lord shall reign forever, Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.'

Our God and God of our fathers, reign Thou in Thy glory over the whole universe, and be exalted above all the earth in Thine honor. Shine forth in the splendor and excellence of Thy might upon all the inhabitants of Thy world, so that all that is made may know that Thou hast made it, and all that is created may understand that Thou hast created it and all that breathe may say: 'The Lord God of Israel is King, and His dominion rules over all.'

Our Father, our King! fill our hands with Thy blessings.

Our Father, our King! fill our storehouses with plenty.

Our Father, our King! hear our voice, spare us, and have mercy upon us.

Our Father, our King! receive our prayer in mercy and in favor.

Our Father, our King! open the gates of heaven unto our prayer.

Our Father, our King! we pray Thee, turn us not back empty from Thy presence.

Our Father, our King! remember that we are but dust.

Our Father, our King! let this hour be an hour of mercy and a time of favor with Thee.

Penitence, Prayer, and Charity avert the severe decree.

For according to Thy name so is Thy praise. Thou art slow to anger and ever ready to be reconciled; for Thou desirest not the death of the sinner, but that he turn from his way and live. And even until the day of his death Thou waitest for him; and if he return, Thou dost straightway receive him.

In truth Thou art our Creator, who knowest our nature, that we are flesh and blood. As for man, he is from the dust, and unto the dust will he return; he gets his bread at the peril of his life; he is like fragile pottery, as the grass that withers, as the flower that fades, as a fleeting shadow, as a passing cloud, as the wind that blows, as the floating dust, yea, and as a dream that flies away.

But Thou art the King, the living and everenduring God.

Happy is the people that knows the sound of the shofar; in the light of Thy presence shall they walk, O Lord!

This day marks the birth of the world. This day the Lord causes all the creatures of the universe to stand in judgment, as children or as servants. If as children, Lord, have pity upon us, as a father pities his children; and if as servants, our eyes are fixed upon Thee, until Thou shalt have compassion upon us, and bring forth our judgment as the light, O Thou aweinspiring and Holy One!

Thou rememberest what was wrought from eternity and art mindful of all that has been formed from of old. Before Thee all secrets are revealed, and the multitude of hidden things from the beginning; for there is no forgetfulness

Thou rememberest every deed that hath been done: not a creature is concealed from Thee: all things are manifest and known unto Thee, O Lord our God, who lookest and seest to the end of all generations. For Thou wilt bring on the appointed time of memorial, when every spirit and soul shall be visited, and the multitudinous works be remembered with the innumerable throng of Thy creatures. From the beginning Thou hast made this Thy purpose known, and from aforetime Thou hast disclosed it. This day, on which was the beginning of Thy work, is a memorial of the first day, for it is a statute for Israel, a decree of the God of Jacob.

Our God and God of our fathers, let us be remembered by Thee for good; grant us salvation and mercy from Thy heavens, the heavens of old. And remember unto us, O Lord our God, the covenant and the lovingkindness and the oath which Thou madest unto Abraham our father on mount Moriah; and may the piety of Abraham when he bound his son Isaac on the altar, appear before Thee, how he overbore his compassion in order to perform Thy will

EVENING SERVICE FOR DAY OF ATONEMENT

And all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who dwells among them; for all the people have sinned unwittingly in error.

Pardon, we beseech Thee, the iniquity of this people according to Thy great love and as Thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

Then the Lord said: 'I have pardoned according to thy word.'

What shall we say before Thee, O Thou who dwellest on high, and what shall we recount unto Thee, Thou who abidest in the heavens? Dost Thou not know all things, both the hidden and the revealed?

Thou knowest the secrets of eternity and the most hidden mysteries of all living. Thou searchest the innermost recesses, and triest the deepest motives of the heart. Nought is concealed from Thee, or hidden from Thine eyes.

May it then be Thy will, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, to forgive us for all our sins, to pardon us for all our iniquities, and to grant us remission for all our transgressions.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

Lord, what is man, that Thou regardest him, or the son of man, that Thou takest account of him? Man is like to vanity; his days are as a shadow that passes away. In the morning he flourishes, and grows up; in the evening he is cut down, and withers. So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom. Mark the man of integrity, and behold the upright; for there is a future for the man of peace. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the nether-world; for He shall receive me. (Selah.) My flesh and my heart fails; but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever. And the dust returns to the earth as it was, but the spirit returns unto God who gave it. I shall behold Thy face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with Thy likeness.

CONCLUSION SERVICE FOR THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

Read from "O Lord, open Thou," p. 23, to "holy King," p. 26. Then continue:—

Thou givest a hand to transgressors, and Thy right hand is stretched out to receive the penitent. Thou hast taught us, O Lord our God, to make confession unto Thee of all our sins, in order that we may stay our hands from violence, that Thou mayest receive us into Thy presence in perfect repentance, even as offerings and sweet savors, for the sake of the words Thou hast spoken. Endless would be the sacrifices required for our guilt, and numberless the sweet savors for our trespasses; but Thou knowest that our latter end is the worm, and hast therefore multiplied the means of our forgiveness. What are we? What is our life? What is our piety? What our righteousness? What our helpfulness? What our strength? What our might? What shall we say before Thee, O Lord our God and God of our fathers? Are not all the mighty men as nought before Thee, the men of renown as though they had not been, the wise as if without knowledge, and the men of understanding as if without discernment? For most of their works are void, and the days of their lives are vanity before Thee, and the preeminence of man over the beast is nought, for all is vanity.

Thou hast distinguished man from the beginning, and hast recognized his privilege that he might stand before Thee; for who shall say unto Thee: 'What doest Thou?' and if he be righteous, what can he give Thee? But Thou of Thy love hast given us, O Lord our God, Ithis Sabbath-day and this Day of Atonement to be an end, a forgiving and a pardoning of all our iniquities that we may stay our hands from violence and may return unto Thee to do the statutes of Thy will with a perfect heart. O do Thou, in Thy abounding compassion, have mercy upon us, for Thou delightest not in the destruction of the world, as it is said: 'Seek ye the Lord, while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near.' And it is said: 'Let the wicked forsake his way, and the man of iniquity his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.' But Thou art a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, plenteous in lovingkindness and abounding in goodness; Thou delightest in the repentance of the wicked, and hast no pleasure in their death, as it is said: 'Say unto them: 'As I live,' said the Lord God, 'I have no pleasure in the death

O God, before I was formed I was nothing worth, and now that I have been formed I am but as though I had not been formed. Dust am I in my life: how much more so in my death. Behold I am before Thee like a vessel filled with shame and confusion. O may it be Thy will, O Lord my God and God of my fathers, that I may sin no more. As to the sins I have committed, purge them away not by means of affliction and sore disease, but in Thine abounding compassion.

Open Thou the gate of mercy for us, at the time of the closing of the Temple gate, for the day is on the wane.

The day is waning, the sun is setting; O let us come into Thy gates!

Sovereign God, enthroned in mercy, Thou dealest with us tenderly, again pardoning the sins of Thy people even though again they sin. Thou art ever ready to give pardon to sinners and forgiveness to transgressors, acting in charity towards all with breath of life, not requiting them according to the evil they do. Thou, God, who hast taught us to repeat the thirteen attributes of mercy, remember unto us this day the covenant of those attributes, as Thou didst reveal them of old to Moses the meek, in the words written: "And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord."

And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed:

The Lord, the Lord, God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth; keeping mercy unto the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and clearing the guilty. O pardon Thou our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Thine inheritance.

forever.

So let the house of Aaron now say, for His mercy endures forever.

So let them now that revere the Lord say, for His mercy endures forever.

Out of my distress I called upon the Lord; He answered me with great liberation. The Lord is for me; I will not fear; what can man do unto me? The Lord is for me as my helper; and I shall gaze upon them that hate me. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes. All nations encompass me about; verily, in the name of the Lord I will cut them off. They encompass me about, yea, they encompass me about; verily, in the name of the Lord I will cut them off. They encompass me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns; verily, in the name of the Lord I will cut them off. They have thrust sore at me that I might fall; but the Lord helped me. The Lord is my strength and song; and He is become my salvation. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous; the

SEDER SERVICE FOR THE EVE OF PASSOVER

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe, who hast preserved us in life, and permitted us to reach this holy season.

THE FOUR QUESTIONS

Why is this night different from all other nights? On all other nights we eat either leavened or unleavened bread, but on this night only unleavened bread. On all other nights we eat all kinds of herbs, but on this night bitter herbs. On all other nights we do not dip the herbs once, but on this night we do so twice. On all other nights we take our meal either sitting or leaning, but on this night we all lean.

ANSWER

Because we were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and the Lord our God brought us forth from there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm. If the Holy One, blessed be He, had not redeemed our fathers from Egypt, then we and our children and our children's children would have been slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt. Therefore, even though we were all of us wise, all of us understanding, all of us elders, all of us well acquainted with the Scriptures, it would still be our duty to tell again the story of the departure from Egypt. The more we tell of this story the better.

Blessed be He who keeps His promise unto Israel! Blessed be He! For the Holy One appointed the time when the days of slavery should end, and fulfilled His promise which He made unto Abraham our father: And He said unto Abram: 'Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; and also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge; and afterward shall they come out with great substance.'

And it is this promise that has sustained both our fathers and us. For not one man alone has risen up against us to destroy us, but in every generation there have risen up against us those who sought to destroy us, but the Holy One, blessed be He, delivered us from their hands.

Rabban Gamaliel said: Whoever does not mention these three things on the Passover has not performed his duty. These things are: (1) the sacrifice of the Passover, (2) the unleavened bread, and (3) the bitter herbs.

- 1. Why were our fathers wont to eat the sacrifice of the Passover in the time of the Temple? Because the Holy One, blessed be He, passed over the houses of our ancestors in Egypt, as it is said: 'And ye shall say: It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, for that He passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed their head and worshipped.'
 - 2. Why is this unleavened bread eaten? Because there was not time for the dough to become leavened when the Supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be He, appeared unto our fathers, and delivered them, as it is said: 'And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any food.

Why is this bitter herb eaten? Because the Egyptians embittered the lives of our ancestors in Egypt, as it is said: 'And the Egyptians made their lives bitter with hard service, in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field; in all their service, wherein they made them serve with rigor.'

In each generation everyone should regard himself as though he himself had gone forth from Egypt, as it is said: 'And thou shalt tell thy son in that day, saying: It is because of that which the Lord did for me when I came forth out of Egypt.' Not only our ancestors did God redeem at that time, but He also redeemed us with them, as it is said: 'And He brought us out from thence, that He might bring us in, to give us the land which He swore unto our fathers.'

Therefore we are in duty bound to thank, to praise, and to render glory and honor and reverence unto Him who, both for us as well as our fathers, performed all these wonders. He

PSALM 113

Hallelujah. Praise, O ye servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord. Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and for ever. From the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof the Lord's name is to be praised. The Lord is high above all nations, His glory is above the heavens. Who is like unto the Lord our God, that is enthroned on high, that looks down low upon heaven and upon the earth? Who raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts up the needy out of the dunghill; that He may set him with princes, even with the princes of His people. Who maketh the barren woman to dwell in her house as a joyful mother of children. Hallelujah.

On Hanukkah and Purim insert the following before "For all this," p. 44:—

We thank Thee also for the miracles, for the redemption, for the mighty deeds and saving acts, wrought by Thee, as well as for the wars which Thou hast waged for our fathers in days of old, at this season.

On Hanukkah

In the days of the Hasmonean, Mattathias son of Johanan, the high priest, and his sons, the cruel Syrian power rose up against Thy people Israel to make them forgetful of Thy Law, and to force them to transgress the statutes of Thy will. Then in Thine abundant mercy hast Thou risen up for them in the time of their trouble. Thou hast pleaded their cause; Thou hast judged their cause. Thou hast redressed their wrong. Thou hast delivered the strong into the hands of the weak, the many into the hands of the few, the impure into the hands of the pure, the wicked into the hands of the righteous, and the arrogant into the hands of those devoted to Thy Law. For Thyself Thou hast made a great and holy name in Thy world, and for Thy people Israel Thou hast worked a

(From the Union Hymnal - Newly Revised - p. 236).

Fortress Rock, my God, my aid! To Thee my praises shall ascend; Our Guardian in the days of yore, On Israel bid Thy grace descend.

The truth our people's seers have known, All men, awakening then shall own; Thy Law of Love, all laws above, Our time-long sorrows full shall end.

My soul is wearied by the woe The ages rained upon my head From early days when Egypt's hate Sustained me on "affliction's bread."

But from Thy great redeeming Hand, The blow fell by the Red Sea's strand; With pomp and boast, the Pharaoh's host Was hurled deep into ocean's bed.

'Twas then Thou broughtest me at length To Zion's rocky temple-hill; Alas, I was not faithful there, For other gods I worshiped still! זמר לחנכה

Who foes beat off most gloriously,
And these glad days attest their praise
Who for Thy truth so nobly bled!

ROCK OF AGES*

MELODY: Traditional Mo-oz Tsur

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power; Thou, amidst the raging foes, Wast our shelt'ring tower Furious, they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us, And Thy word Broke their sword When our own strength failed us.

Kindling new the holy lamps Priests approved in suffering, Purified the nation's shrine, Brought to God their offering And his courts surrounding Hear, in joy abounding, Happy throngs, Singing songs With a mighty sounding.

Children of the martyr-race
Whether free or fettered,
Wake the echoes of the songs
Where ye may be scattered.
Yours the message cheering
That the time is nearing
Which will see
All men free,

Tyrants disappearing.

PRAYER FOR THE GOVERNMENT

May He who is the source of all good gifts bless the men assembled here and be with all the members of their families and their households; may He prosper and help them in their needs and guide them in their difficulties. May He hear the prayers of all who worship Him in truth, comfort the sorrowing, and cheer the silent sufferers. May He reward with the joy of goodness the charitable and the merciful who aid the poor, care for the sick, teach the ignorant, and stretch forth their helping hand to those who have lost their way in this world.

Fervently we invoke Thy benediction for this our country and our nation. Guard them, O God, from calamity and injury; may their adversaries not triumph over them, but the glories of a just, righteous, and God-fearing people increase from age to age. Enlighten and sustain with Thy power those whom the people have set in authority: the President and his counsellors and advisers, the judges, law-givers, and executives, and all those who are entrusted with our safety and with the preservation of our rights and liberties. May peace and good will obtain amongst all the citizens of our land; may religion spread its blessings among us, and exalt our nation in righteousness. Amen.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

- I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

- 7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
- 8. Thou shalt not steal.

BURIAL SERVICE

The Rock, His work is perfect, for all His ways are justice; a God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is He. We know, O Lord, that Thy judgment is righteous. Thou art justified when Thou speakest, and art in the right when Thou judgest, and it is not for us to murmur at Thy method of judging. Just art Thou, O Lord, and righteous are Thy judgments, O true and righteous Judge! Blessed be the true Judge, all whose judgments are righteous and true. The soul of every living thing is in Thy hand; Thy right hand is full of justice. Have mercy upon the remnant of the flock of Thy hand, and say unto the angel: 'Stay thy hand.' Thou art great in counsel and mighty in deed. Thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the children of men, giving unto every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. O declare that the Lord is upright; He is my Rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. And He, being merciful, forgives iniquity and destroys not; yea, many a time He turns His anger away, and does not stir up all His wrath.

PSALM 23.

The Lord is my shepherd;

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul;

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil,

For Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The coffin is borne to the grave.

AFTER BURIAL

Lord, what is man, that Thou regardest him, or the son of man, that Thou takest account of him? Man is like to vanity; his days are as a shadow that passeth away. In the morning he flourishes and grows up; in the evening he is cut down, and withers. So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR THOSE FALLEN IN BATTLE

O God, who art full of compassion, who dwellest on high, to all who have bravely laid down their lives for their country grant perfect rest beneath the shelter of Thy divine presence, in the exalted spheres among the holy and pure who shine as of the brightness of the firmament. We beseech Thee, Lord of compassion, shelter them for evermore under the cover of Thy wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life, with the souls of the right-cous who are ever with Thee.

And the work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness quietness and confidence for ever. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. Amen.

PRAYER FOR HOME

Far from home and those I love, I find my thoughts turning to them with affectionate longing. O Thou who art with my distant loved ones even while Thou art here with me, who hearkenest to their prayers even as Thou hearkenest to mine, bless us and keep us united in spirit until we meet again. Let my memory hold them in such loving embrace that I be cheered by their imagined presence. Keep me under the influence of the ties that bind me to them, so that even in strange surroundings I may conduct myself in ways that do them honor. Keep me gratefully mindful of the blessing of their love and let me not give way to loneliness or despondency. Help me to bring cheer to my comrades, who like me are separated from their dear ones. For Thou, God, art the Father of all; Thou art the source of all love. None who puts his faith in Thee need ever feel friendless or forsaken.

PRAYER IN TEMPTATION

O Lord, Thou hast created me; Thou hast fashioned my body and its powers. Thou hast also given me the gift of Thy spirit by which I am moved to use these powers in ways that are good and right in Thine eyes. May I remember this at all times and in the presence of every temptation. For wayward fancies and base passions too often tempt me to seek a passing pleasure at the expense of my enduring happiness, and divert me from my purpose to perform Thy will. Give me the strength to banish thoughts and desires which I know to be wrong. May I do nothing that can bring dishonor on myself, on those I love or on any human being. May I not degrade the physical, mental and emotional powers that Thou hast given me by dissipating them in intemperate, self-indulgent and immoral behavior. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me that I may be worthy of those blessings which flow from a clear conscience and a pure love of Thee and of Thy children, Amen,

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrim's pride From every mountain side, Let freedom ring.

My native country thee,
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee, Author of liberty, To Thee I sing; Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light; Protect us by Thy might, Great God, our King.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep, Where the foe's haughty host in dread

Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,

What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,

As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?

Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam.

In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream. 'Tis the star-spangled banner!-oh long may it wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Oh, thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved home and wild war's desolation; Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

BEAUTIFUL FOR SPACIOUS SKIES

O beautiful for spacious skies For amber waves of grain For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!

America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet Whose stern, impassioned stress A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!

America! America! God mend thine every flaw, Confirm thy soul in self control, Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife, Who more than self their country loved, And mercy more than life! America! America! May God thy gold refine, Till all success be nobleness And every gain divine.

O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years Thine alabaster cities gleam Undimmed by human tears!

America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!

Amen.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

VERSE

While the storm clouds gather Far across the sea,
Let us swear allegiance
To a land that's free,
Let us all be grateful
For a land so fair,
As we raise our voices
In a solemn prayer.

CHORUS

God bless America,
Land that I love,
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above:
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam
God bless America
My home, sweet home.

EVENING SERVICE FOR THE SABBATH

(From the "Union Prayer Book-Newly Revised")

See also p. 1.

Reader

Lord of the universe, we lift up our hearts to Thee who made heaven and earth. The infinite heavens and the quiet stars tell of Thine endless power. We turn from our daily toil, from its difficulties and its conflicts, from its clamor and its weariness, to meditate on the serene calm of Thy presence which pervades all creation and hallows our life with the blessing of Sabbath peace.

Father of peace, bless Thou our worship on this Sabbath day. Enlighten our eyes to behold Thy guiding power in all nature from the remotest star to our inmost soul. Inspire our hearts to love Thee and to make Thy will the law of our life. Grant us comfort in sorrow, strength in trial, and the courage to serve Thee in all our ways. May our words of prayer and our unspoken meditations be acceptable unto Thee, our Creator and Redeemer. Amen.

Honor and majesty are before Him; strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Eternal truth it is that Thou alone art God,

And through Thy power alone has Israel been redeemed from the hand of oppressors.

Great deeds hast Thou wrought in our behalf

Thou hast kept us in life; Thou hast not let our footsteps falter.

Thy love has watched over us in the night of oppression;

Thy mercy has sustained us in the hour of trial.

Our God and God of our fathers, grant that our worship on this Sabbath be acceptable to Thee. Sanctify us through Thy commandments that we may share in the blessings of Thy word. Teach us to be satisfied with the gifts of Thy goodness and gratefully to rejoice in all Thy mercies. Purify our hearts that we may serve Thee in truth. O help us to preserve the Sabbath as Israel's heritage from generation to generation, that it may bring rest and joy, peace and comfort to the dwellings of our brethren, and through it Thy name be hallowed in all the earth. Praised be Thou, O Lord, who sanctifiest the Sabbath.

SILENT PRAYER

(or such other prayer as the heart may prompt)

O God, keep my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile. Be my support when grief silences my voice, and my comfort when woe bends my spirit. Implant humility in my soul, and strengthen my heart with perfect faith in Thee. Help me to be strong in temptation and trial and to be patient and forgiving when others wrong me. Guide me by the light of Thy counsel, that I may ever find strength in Thee, my Rock and my Redeemer. Amen.

(Or the following psalm)

(Psalm xxiii)

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable unto Thee, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

ADORATION

(Congregation rises)

Cong. and Reader.— Let us adore the everliving God, and render praise unto Him who spread out the heavens and established the earth, whose glory is revealed in the heavens above and whose greatness is manifest throughout the world. He is our God; there is none else.

We bow the head in reverence, and worship the King of kings, the Holy One, praised be He.

(Congregation is seated)

Reader.— May the time not be distant, O God, when Thy name shall be worshiped in all the earth, when unbelief shall disappear and error be no more. Fervently we pray that the day may come when all men shall invoke Thy name, when corruption and evil shall give way to purity and goodness, when superstition shall no longer enslave the mind, nor idolatry blind the eye, when all who dwell on earth shall know that to Thee alone every knee must bend and every tongue give homage. O may all, created in Thine image, recognize that they are brethren, so that, one in spirit and one in fellowship, they may be forever united before Thee.

Then shall Thy kingdom be established on earth and the word of Thine ancient seer be fulfilled: The Lord will reign forever and ever.

Cong. (or Choir).—On that day the Lord shall be One and His name shall be One.

בַּיוֹם הַהוּא יִהְיֶה יְיָ אֶחְד וּשְׁמוֹ אֶחְד:

Reader .- All you who mourn the loss of loved ones, and at this hour remember the sweet companionship and the cherished hopes that have passed away with them, give ear to the word of comfort spoken in the name of God. Only the body has died and has been laid in the dust. The spirit lives in the shelter of God's love and mercy. Our loved ones continue also in the remembrance of those to whom they were precious. Their deeds of lovingkindness, the true and beautiful words they spoke, are treasured up as incentives to conduct by which the living honor the dead. And when we ask in our grief: Whence shall come our help and our comfort? then in the trength of faith let us answer with the Psalmist: My help cometh from God. He will not forsake us nor leave us in our grief. Upon Him we cast our burden and He will grant us strength according to the days He has apportioned to us. All life comes from Him; all souls are in His keeping. Come then, and in the midst of sympathizing fellow-worshipers, rise and hallow the name of God.
